

COLLIER HERITAGE FOUNDATION

DISSEMINATING COLLIER FAMILY GENEALOGICAL AND HISTORICAL INFORMATION

HOME    ABOUT    CONTACT    SUBMIT POST    MESSAGE BOARD

Re-Dedication of Vines Collier Monument, 2001

FEBRUARY 16, 2015 9:34 PM \ LEAVE A COMMENT \ BY COLLIERHERITAGE \ EDIT

In 2001, several descendants of Vines Collier, spearheaded by the late William Ramon Collier, ordered monuments to place over the unmarked graves of Sarah Elizabeth Williamson Collier (wife of Vines) and Vines Collier, Jr. Placement of the monuments was accompanied by the DAR's re-dedication of the Vines Collier marker on October 20, 2001. Approximately 35-40 family and friends attended the event.

Sons of the American Revolution color guard.

Ceremony led by the late William Ramon Collier.

Jack Howard, owner of the Collier-Howard House, tells how he "never met a Collier he didn't like."

"Pleasant Hill"

Collier-Howard House - Original part of house built by Lt. Vines Collier, Sr. in 1786.
Addition made in 1840 by Judge William T. Howard, Sr.

Following the ceremony, Jack Howard graciously received guests in his home.